

Confident Parenting Class

The Confident Parenting Approach is based on the Social Learning Theory.

The theory focuses on two major ways that people learn: (1) through modeling or copying the behavior of others and (2) through the reactions, the consequences, which occur as a result of our behavior. Topics addressed in this curriculum include Effective praise, Family Rules and Child Behavior/Development, Mild social Disapproval, Effective Limit Setting, Time Out,

Community Recovery Hosted at New Community Church

2340 Dean Lake Ave. NE

Friday's, April 21st 2017—June 23rd, 2017

7:00pm– 9:00pm

Family Outreach Center is offering a parenting class to address both parenting and life skills. This is a (2) hour class occurring once a week for 10 weeks.

- ◇ Gift Card Raffle
- ◇ Transportation call New Community Church (616) 361-6014

Questions? Contact Alisha Cowell ext. 4139
Family Outreach Center, Inc. 1939 S. Division (616) 247-3815

